The Republican Platform. The National republican party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Chicago, on the 20th day of May, 1868, make the following de claration of principles:-First-We congratufate the couffry on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evinced by the adoption in the maority of the State lately in rebellion of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all; and it is the duty of the government to sus-tain those institutions and to prevent the people of those States from being remitted to a state of amarchy, (Cheers.) S. and-The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loval men at the South was manded by every consideration of public safety of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States. (Cheers.) Third-We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime-(prolonged cheers)-and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to ill creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. (Applause.) Fourth-It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

Fifth-The national debt contracted, as it has been, for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair per undersigned hereby gives notice of his apriod for redemption; and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can be honestly done. Sixth-That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must con tinue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or to-tal, open or covert, is threatened or suspected. Seventh-The government of the United States should be administered with the strictest econo my, and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

Eighth-We professedly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions; who has refused to execute the laws; who has used his high office to ignore and violate the laws, who has employed his executive powers to render insecure property, the peace, liberty and life of the citizen; who has abused the pardoning power; who has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; who has persistently and corruptly resisted by every measure in his power every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; who has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption, and who has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors and properly pronounced guilty thereof by the vote of thirty-

North -The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States, as a relic of the feudal times, not authorized by the law of nations and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled e protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born, and no citizet, of the United Saates, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any toreign power, for acts done or words spoken in this country; and if so arrested and imprisoned it is the duty of the government to interfere in his behalf.

Tenth-Oi all who were faithful in the trials of the late war there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise and imperilled their lives in the service of their country; the bounties and pensions provided by the laws for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten; the willows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people-a sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

Eleventh-Foreign emigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development and resources and increase of power to this na-tion, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal

Twelfth-This Convention declares itself in sympathy with all the oppressed people which are struggling for their rights.
